1. It is now certain that the second blast furnace of the Lenin Iron and Steel Works (Nowa Huta) will not be working in 1954. Only one blast furnace will be in use, and this not until July 1954. The second will probably come into use in April 1955.
2. When the new furnace in the siliceous ("krzemionkowy") section of the Lenin Iron and Steel Works was being fired for the first time, there was an explosion and the furnace was destroyed. This siliceous section had been due to start production in September 1953.
